

BOOK WEEK

Every year, students celebrate books and reading for pleasure during Book Week at Jaffery Junior School.

The students dress up as their favorite book characters, authors and talk about them during assembly.

The students display their talents and confidence in public speaking.

An Inter-House spelling bee competition was also organized during this week for different classes.

