The much awaited history knights made a walk into Jaffery Junior school on 10th to 12th July, 2017. It was a fun filled event with a show case of historical events through time as well as a learning moment for all.

The 2017 History Knights, left historical foot prints and nostalgic feeling in the hearts of many Jafferians.

It also witnessed the inauguration of the school museum which was an idea born and nurtured by the humanities department.
